

Denver Airport DEN | Concourse A

Overview

The Denver International Airport (DEN) is North America's largest airport site, spanning nearly 34,000 acres. Each year, this airport serves over 77 million passengers. In 2023, the Airports Council International named Denver International Airport the third-busiest airport for passenger traffic in the U.S. This airport is also a hub for several major airlines, including Frontier Airlines, United Airlines, and Southwest Airlines. DEN is made up of one terminal known as the Jeppesen Terminal. Within this main terminal, the airport is broken into A, B, and C concourse areas.

Where Can I Eat and Drink at DEN Concourse A?

Passengers flying out of the A gate area in Denver International Airport have plenty of options for food and beverage across the concourse. Near Gate A18 is Tacos Tequila Whiskey, a popular Denver dining spot that serves flavorful tacos using locally sourced ingredients. Directly next to this restaurant is Elway's Taproom & Grill, offering a huge selection of American fare like burgers and salads.

Many quick-serve and grab-n-go spots are located across the concourse as well, such as Pizza Hut and the Grab n' Go Marketplace. For a caffeine fix, stop by Peet's Coffee near Gate A20.
